12. [REDACTED] In response to his query of yesterday concerning [REDACTED] I advised Bob Young, Senate Judiciary Committee staff, that while we were aware of the [REDACTED] case, we had no information other than that already known to him. I also pointed out that the Navy was the proper channel for communication of any information regarding this Naval officer. Mr. Young thanked me for checking on the case.

14. [REDACTED] Talked with Sherman R. Abrahamson, Deputy Director, Office of Export Control, Department of Commerce, regarding his coordination of the replies of DOD, and State as well as Commerce to Representative James Harvey's letter on the proposed FIAT loan by the Export-Import Bank. Abrahamson said that two of the three parts of the reply had been completed and he anticipated it would be finished tomorrow. He said he had cleared the State Department's proposed reply and would send us a copy of the Commerce response when it had been finalized.

15. [REDACTED] Talked with James Colbert, Economic Affairs Officer, Office of Soviet Union Affairs, Department of State, concerning the Department's proposed reply to Representative James Harvey's inquiry. Colbert said that although they had coordinated their proposed reply with Commerce, they were having some difficulty within the Department on certain parts of this response. He will make a copy available to us when it is in final form. He mentioned that Representative Ashley's Subcommittee, the Joint Economic Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee were all expected to be holding hearings which in one way or another would touch on this subject.
